

Jewish Federation's Business Network Presents:
Five Key Steps to Internet Business Success

Tuesday, February 28

7:30am - 9:00am

Coco's Restaurant (1150 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia)

$15 per person

Thomas B. Reynolds

A business executive whose collaborative management style attracts talented people and inspires them to action by forming winning teams that get results! His extensive experience in regional, national and global marketing and communications has produced a lengthy record of establishing successful strategic partnerships to advance the mission of complex business projects and effective change. A highly organized professional, Tom has achieved tangible and quantifiable results by breaking tasks down to small manageable steps to make change easier to digest. He has successfully led manufacturing, software development, advertising, consulting organizations as well as related start-up businesses for 30 years.

RSVP by Friday, February 24

626.445.0810 or federation@jewishsgpv.org